

Dearest Bunny;

This will only be a short note so you will get a letter on Wednesday. I got back all right last nite, the train was only 20 minutes late. I slept soundly all the way back. So soundly that the conductor had to waken me when we got to Battle Creek.

This morning I have to draw a lot of equipment I'd sooner do without; mess kit, canteen, tent, pack, helmet, etc. just a lot more junk to cart around. I hate the Army, especially this morning. After spending a whole day with you it's an awful disappointment to wake up to the atmosphere of a barracks once more. Damn it all, isn't this war ever going to end.

The cupcakes are delicious.

Thank your mother again for me wait you. She has been very good to me as has all the Robson family. I love that family and am glad I'll be a part of it soon.

Can't be too soon to suit me Darling. I become more convinced every day that I must really be in love with you. It's the only explanation there is. - I do love you very much Lady.

They resisted the alert of the company yesterday. I don't know what the story is but maybe will stay here. I don't think they know what they're doing. The first sgt. still says we'll ship tomorrow tho.

Well goodbye darling, got to fall out
now. I send you all my love, give yourself a great big hug & kiss for me won't you.

I love you

Freddie
